EuroFM Innovation AWARD: DEMONSTRATE YOUR FM INNOVATION!

The twelfth European FM Awards will be held and presented at the EFMC 2019 in Dublin, Ireland 12 - 14 June 2019. For the first edition of the Innovation award, members and non-members are being invited to join this appealing competition - bringing out the best in FM globally!

EuroFM Innovation Award

The EuroFM Innovation Award recognizes the most innovative service in FM. This can be any technological or social innovation underlining the added value of facility management.

The EuroFM Innovation Award will recognise innovation in delivering facilities management services demonstrated by:

- What is the added value of the innovation for the end-users or organization, based on the impact and the costs?
- How innovative is the solution (taken into account the resources and the maturity of the market)?
- What is the impact on the facility management profession as a whole?

How to enter

Provide a written description of no more than 1000 - 1500 words describing the FM innovative solution. Please ensure to address all the selection criteria mentioned above. The entry must be accompanied by a completed form and emailed to team@office-eurofm.org until the 10th of May 2019. Please find the entry form herewith further below.

Finalists in the EuroFM Innovation category will be interviewed online by the team of expert judges selected by EuroFM. The judges' decisions are final. Information on how to enter is also posted on the website of EuroFM www.eurofm.org

A representative of the FM Innovation Awards winner is requested to be present at the EuroFM Award Show at the EFMC 2019 in Dublin, Ireland. The winner receives one free entry ticket for the EFMC 2019.
